

Price Guide

Regarding all Sessions: Select Print or Digital option and make the required deposit to reserve your spot. If you select the print option, you will be given a digital gallery of images from which to select. If you choose the digital option, it is photographer's choice and no gallery will be provided. LaMon Photography is not responsible for the quality of images printed by the consumer. We stand behind the quality of images printed through our labs that are only available to professionals.
